Food Permit: Prepared food vendors must obtain a valid vending permit from the Genesee County Health Department. Vendor understands no vending activities will be allowed without this permit.

Food Permit Information and Applications are available at: Genesee County Health Department, 3837 West Main Street Road, Batavia, NY 14020; (585) 344-2580.

Copies of the insurance certificate and food permit must be included with the application to the B.I.D. Downtown Wine Walk Committee. Vendor must post a copy of the permit in a conspicuous place within the serving area.

Security / Responsibility of Property: Vendors are required to insure maximum protection of their property. The B.I.D., Downtown Wine Walk Committee are NOT responsible for any theft or damage to the vendor's space, equipment and or products.

Vendor Responsibilities:

Age: Vendor must have at least one individual of legal age (21 years or older) on site who is responsible for booth space during the Wine Walk event hours.

Booth Space: Vendors are responsible for construction / setup of their displays and must provide all equipment and supplies for setup. Walkways are not to be blocked for the safety of patrons and assessable for emergency vehicles.

Clean Up: Vendors are required to keep space neat, clear of obstacles, and remove all litter and debris.

Compliance: No form of discrimination will be permitted and vendors are expected to be courteous to patrons and staff. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations could result in dismissal from the event.

Electric: Vendor must provide own source of electricity (power), which is safe and not disruptive to the other vendors and public.

Emergency Situations: Vendor should immediately contact the Downtown Manager and call 911.

Product Displays: They should be safe, clean and visually attractive.

Signage: Vendors should clearly display their business name and location. Food vendors must post prices of all food. The Wine Walk Committee has the right to limit signage and disallow any sign or promotion it considers inappropriate.

Grievance Procedures:

All complaints or violations of the rules and regulations must be addressed in writing to the Batavia Downtown Wine Walk Committee. The committee will investigate the compliant(s) and respond accordingly. Mail to: B.I.D., Wine Walk Committee, 200 East Main Street, Suite 12, Batavia, NY 14021.

The Downtown Manager will notify vendors of any violations of the rules and regulations. The Wine Walk will review any violation and determine consequences appropriate to the offenses which include warnings and possible termination of the vendor's rights to sell at the Wine Walk event. A vendor may appeal a decision by the committee by giving written notice and attending a meeting of the Wine Walk.
